

GREAT ESTATES ITINERARY

This region is famous for its great houses. Creswell Crag is located on the Welbeck Estate which is the ancestral home of the Duke of Portland. It forms part of the Dukeries, celebrated for its stately homes and titled aristocracy.

Many will be familiar with Chatsworth in Derbyshire but there are an abundance of glorious estates to choose from in the region. Neaby you will find Hardwick Hall, Bolsover Castle, Renishaw Hall, Clumber Park, Rufford Abbey and Hodsock Priory whilst further afield, Wentworth Woodhouse and Haddon Hall are well worth exploring.
